Letter of approval for the translation of the ESPEN practical guideline: Clinical nutrition in chronic intestinal failure into Italian language

February, 22nd 2022

Dear Professor Zanetti,

thank you very much for the translation of the "ESPEN practical guideline: Clinical nutrition in chronic intestinal failure" into the Italian language. We appreciate very much the work you and your colleagues have done.

The translated version was checked by the ESPEN guideline office. The rules were followed adequately; thus, we officially approve the Italian version of the "ESPEN practical guideline: Clinical nutrition in chronic intestinal failure".

With kind regards,

Stephan C. Bischoff
