Letter of approval for the translation of the ESPEN practical guideline: Home parenteral nutrition into Italian language

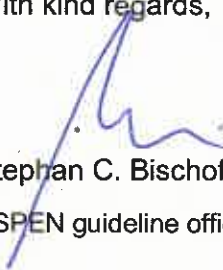

July, 25th 2024

Dear Dr Lezo,
Dear Dr. Zurlo,

thank you very much for the translation of the “ESPEN practical guideline: Home parenteral nutrition” into the Italian language. We appreciate very much the work you and your colleagues have done.

The translated version was checked by the ESPEN guideline office. The rules were followed adequately; thus, we officially approve the Italian version of the “ESPEN practical guideline: Home parenteral nutrition”.

With kind regards,

Stephan C. Bischoff
ESPEN guideline officer
