Letter of approval for the translation of the ESPEN practical guideline: Clinical nutrition in liver disease into Italian language

December, 22nd, 2020

Dear Professor Zanetti,

thank you very much for the translation of the "ESPEN practical guideline: Clinical nutrition in liver disease" into the Italian language. We appreciate very much the work you and your colleagues have done.

The translated version was checked by the ESPEN guideline office. The rules were followed adequately; thus, we officially approve the Italian version of the "ESPEN practical guideline: Clinical nutrition in liver disease".

With kind regards,

Stephan C. Bischoff
ESPEN guideline officer
